QUESTION: WHO CAN YOU TRUST? ANSWER: THE LOCAL GUYS!

June 27, 2011 Springfield, MA –

As our community faces the cleanup after the devastation of the recent tornados it is important to work with a contractor which is LOCAL, LICENSED and REPUTABLE. The Better Business Bureau lists roofing “as one of the highest inquiry categories nationwide”. As a homeowner you need to do your research.

Adam Quenneville Roofing, Siding and Windows is hoping to help ease concerns with the announcement of the recent acceptance of awards from two national organizations.

GAF, North America’s largest roofing manufacturer, announced Adam Quenneville Roofing, Siding & Windows one of only fifty-six contractors in the country to receive all three of the prestigious GAF Master Elite Excellence Awards:

- Consumer Protection Excellence
- Training Excellence
- Installation Excellence

These coveted industry awards recognize the company’s dedication to quality roof system installations and a commitment to continuous improvement and superior customer service. Only 2% off all the roofing contractors in the country have earned GAF’s Master Elite status.

In addition, Adam A. Quenneville, owner of Adam Quenneville Roofing, Siding & Windows, has also been included in the “Presidential Who’s Who Among Business and Professional Achievers” – 2011 Edition.

Adam Quenneville Roofing, Siding & Windows, is dedicated to providing the best possible quality, superior customer service, and workmanship that you can trust. The commitment to excellence has made Adam Quenneville Roofing, Siding & Windows the most trusted name in Western Massachusetts. Recently winning the BBB Torch Award for Trust, Performance and Integrity. From their installation crews, to their office staff, they take care to provide you with the best possible service for your home. You can rest assured that you have chosen the right professionals for your next home project.
